11th Scrum meeting

Meeting agenda

- How far have we come??
- How far still to go before the end of the sprint??
- Suggestions of how we could catch up to our original target
- Scheduling of next Scrum meeting.

Each individual member answered the following questions:

0.1 How far have we come??:

Each member the following to say:

- Lethabo: Went from not having an idea of how to create the layout to producing a good looking interface;
- Fortune: Created the Github and completed his given task successfully;
- Kgopotsho: Created a good looking, easy to read document demonstrating the Architectural design of our project;
- Chris: Kept up to date with the daily scrum meetings and kept the team working at an optimal pace despite the holidays and different schedules;
- Mthulisi: Working on the RAD document gave him a different in depth idea of the requirements and functionality of the project;

0.2 How far still to go??

The tasks that still need to be completed :

- Lethabo: Inserting the required pictures and working on the finer details of the interface;
- Fortune: Needs to learn how to submit freely on Github and requires the code needed for testing ;
- Kgopotsho: Implementing the Architecture into code ;
- Chris : Need to upload all documents onto Github as proof of the scrum meetings;
- Mthulisi: Collect the content from the rest of the team members in order to complete the RAD document;

0.3 Suggestions on how to meet the target

Comments made by each member :

- Lethabo: Share the documents on github and give all the opportunity to expand on the code, suggested we all download Android Studio;
- Fortune: Should start the actual coding and assign classes to individuals ;
- Kgopotsho: Working in groups and not as individuals ;
- Chris : Suggested that we get coding right away;
- Mthulisi: Suggested that we all meet on the 10th so that we can all be briefed on everything and list our capabilities then assign tasks accordingly;

0.4 Scheduling of next Scrum meeting:

Meeting adjourned, next scrum meeting to be scheduled on 10th August 2016 at 14h00.
